SWELLING THE LOTOS CLUB BUILDING FUND.

Important action with reference to the proposed new ise of the Lotos Club will probably be taken at the meeting of the members on Saturday evening. The directors will report the property Nos. 550 and 558 Fifth-ave., and perhaps other pieces, as suitable for the uses of the club. In the meantime the officers are working to get subscriptions to the building fund. They have already secured between $60,000 and $70,000, a most favorable showing, in view of the fact that the new site has not yet been definitely decided on. When it is voted to buy some particular house, no cubt subscriptions will come in with renewed activity. The balance of the money needed will be raised on a notes.

THE NEW KHEDIVE OF EGYPT.

THE CAREER AND THE ATTAINMENTS OF THE YOUNG PRINCE ABBAS.

The late Khedive of Egypt, Tewfik Pacha, who died in Caire on January 7, left four children, two boys and two girls, borne him by his only wife, Princess Emineh, whom he married in 1873. His eldest son, Ablas Bey, the present Khedive, was born on July 14, 1874, and therefore will attain his majority in six months. The fact that he is a minor was the has been from the first, as every one expected, one of Russia at the Porio based their request to the Sultan that request, and the new Khelive has been finally recognized by the Sultan as entitled to exercise the Abbas Bey was educated by A. T. Butler, who acted for several years as his tutor, and who had been for a long while in the service of the late Khediye. It is this circumstance which has given rise to the too general belief that the young Prince, having been at first under British tuition, would prove to be an Anglophile to a still greater extent than was his Anglophile to a still greater extent than was his and the second of the associates of Mr. Otis in the commutes which nominated the "Members' Ticket" said:

UNION LEAGUE'S ACTIVITY.

THE CANVASS GROWS IN INTEREST.

MR. DEPEW'S FOLLOWERS EXPLAIN THEIR PO-SITION-OPINIONS FREELY GIVEN.

The election of officers of the Union League Club to-night continues to be a topic of absorbing interest in club circles throughout the city, and the factional excitement aroused will probably result in the polling of a larger vote than has been cast at any annua meeting before. The frank explanation by th "Nominating Committee" elected by the club of the reasons which led them to place Mr. Depew at the head of the ficket and of his position has had the effect of changing the minds of many members who

He suggested that Mr. Depew should be continued for another year; the sug-Depow, when the situation was revealed to him, did cepted when he was led to believe that all who officially represented the sincerity and the honorable word of steadily and consistently refused to be led by any dethrough a proper instrumentality, and to accept which would be to lower the standard of the club's integrity and at the same time humiliate, through no fault of his own, one who has received its highest successive vote the regular ticket, and that he does not ap-prove the action of those who have nominated the "Members' Ticket," and placed him, against his will, at the head of it. It is said that Colonel Strong, who was chairman of the "Nominating Committee," and who served steadily as the friend of Mr. Bliss in the committee, has received a letter from Mr. Bliss to that effect.

A reporter of The Tribune sought industriously yes terday to gather the varying opinions of members of the club, and it must be confessed found them more than ordinarily willing to talk over the situation. All tend to support Mr. Bliss, and we have done about the liveliest work for him that has ever been done for any one in the club, though he has seadily refused to authorize position which he has been compelled, from the expension of circumstances, to assume. These may have much weight among members. I desire especially to add that we think our position is pasticularly strong in asking that the names we propose should be elected in the place of General Thomas H. Hubbort, of Charles S. Smith and of W. Hart Smith, Mr. Dewey and others who are on the

They have always opposed the change. But there are others of us who are pretty good Republicans on general principles, but—are strong Cleveland men and here the man strangely laughed over his serious atterance of a startling paradex).

Then there are some who call themselves Mugwamps, but whose politics concists mainly in being free-raders (and then the may laughed again at his raders (and then the may laughed again at his wn success in attiving at something approaching correct definition of the long disputed appellation. Now, if these members desire to have the club become a purely orial organization. Hise the Union and the Knickerbecker lots. It is offensive to them, you see, to have resolu-ions reported at the monthly meetings from the Committee or Political Reform, on National and State Issues, and re-resiving the indersement of the club; and, then, again, it harassing to them to sit in the monthly meetings and s harassing to them 50 st in the monthly meetings along Colonol Cannon and other strong Protectionists administering allopathic doses of that principle so vicerally and metalessity as they are in the habit of doing. On one of these who have to take these namestring pre-criptions, and they are not palatable. It is true, we are eriptions, and they are not palatable. It is true, we are few in numbers, but we are there all the same, and get there, we don't know just how. Possibly we are not up with the times; that remains to be seen; but it's aw-fully painful to be specied at by such a superiority of numbers. Well, this element made its bir field against the resolution declaring the Union League to be a Repul-lican club last winter, and we railled about 200 souls. more or less, if every man's soul under such circum-tances goes for a unit. We think we are about the same trances goes for a unit.

Approach to par now. We are not sure, but we will see to-morrow night. But, seriously, as between Mr. Denow and Mr. Birss, as Republicans, there is little to choose; but in our judiment, the regular ticket necessarily represents the continuation of the Republican policy which the club adopted by its resolution last winter, and, herefore, while on personal grounds some members who sink as I do-I humbly make the confession-will not vote or Mr. Depew, the rest of us will be against the regular

The last man whom the reporter overtook was an enthusiastic worker for the regular ticket. He said: The opposition is dying out, and if the canvags should un for a few days longer it would disappear he persistent returns of Mr. Bliss to be a candidate and tetermination to support Mr. Depew are fatal to the his determination to support Nr. Depew are fatal to the alekers. The elements which are behind that ticket are so licongrisors and, except for the present, so hostile that they have no confidence in each other and cannot work together. The Ots circular is like the Irishnan's opposition when asked to join one of the political parties on anding in this country. He said: "All I want to know a which is and it is a like the political parties of and the political parties of and the political parties of an indeed to be a property of the said."

innding in this country. He said: "All I want to know is which is agin the Government."

The sober second sense of the club is, in my judgment, that the Nombrating Committee did the very best they could do, did it without any selfish or personal considerations, and patriotically for the best interests of the club. Nobody understands the difficulties in the way of selecting introfor names for a flexet unless he has been on a nominating committee some time or other and tried it. Every one of the lifts-four places has a great many candidates anxious to receive it, and when the ticket is first posted all the candidates who are not elected have at first a seted all the candidates who are not elected have at first a poeted all the condidates who are not elected have at dist a strong feeling of disappointment. But unless there is some strong reason affecting the wrifare of the club-which appeals to the members, they always support the regular ticket. This is a Presidential Year, the Nominating Committee were so nopelessly divided between Mr. Eliss and Commodure Van Santyoord that two tickets were positiable. To keep the club har-monious during this year, and make it effective, the friends of all the continuous parend for president united in print monious during this year, and make it elective, the treaths of all the gentlemen named for president united in urging Mr. Depew to withdraw has declination and cominue for another year. There is not a single member of the clu-who would have refused the nomination unanimously tenwho would have refused the nomination unanimously ten-dered under such circumstances as this nomination was pressed upon Mr. Depew. To sacrifice him because some members want the policy of the club to be changed, sign herause others want to punish the Nominating Committee, is an outrage, and the great body of the members will not permit it. You can say that the regular ticket will be permit it. You can say that the regular ficket will not elected three to one. It has the support of Letirand R. cannon, of Commodore Van Santvoord, of Mr. Bliss, of haries S. Smith, and of every other man who has been used to jamed in connection with the presidency.

John I, Davenport, who is the leader of the opposition cket, is one of the nost active and efficient workers in the ticket, is one of the most active and efficient werkers in the city; and his assistants. Surveyor Lyon, Appraiser Cooper and Deputy Collector flittchford, are also very able workers; but the acception that somehow or other they anticipate some benefit to themselves that the inceming administration in the distribution of its patronage may confer very in the distribution of its patronage may confer very seriously impairs the force of the appeals which they make that both sides were extremely active. A number of young men are for Mr. Bliss, and some of them spent he whole day electioneering for their men. roung supporters of Mr. Depew were equally zealous and his cause was also energetically urged by many of the older members whose voice would be of the greatest weight. Mr. Depew's admirers are legion, and they are triving hard to bring out every vote. 780 votes were cast, there being a hot election for sec retary. Only 601 members voted last month for th two tickets for Nominating Committee. A member who is exceptionally well acquainted with the club's mated that 800 votes would be polled. The pledges on both sides are unusually numerous, and nearly half selves with one side or the other. The election was nearly complicated by the posting of a third ticket. This had been finished, and the in ention was to send it to the members on Tuesday. On that day, however, the men behind it abandoned the dea of putting a third set of candidates in the field. n it as follows:

The Liberal Republicans and Mugwumps were opposed to the Strong committee, and at first transferre were told in so many words that any open share which they took in the deliberations would raise the cry that the Mugwump element. Consequently, only those whose Republicanism was known to be rock-ribbed, took part in stood this, they asked the privilege of naming a few of the candidates on the Eliss ticket. They wanted to fornish a list of men who were out-and-out Republicans, and who list of men who were out-and-out Republicans, and to have the Com-mittee of Twenty-five select some names from this. The committee rejected this overture. When its ticket was shown to the Mugwungs, they objected to four men on it as being of too violent a Republicanism. The committee refused to take the names off, and their ticket was posted. Then the Liberal Republicans and Mugwungs set about cetting up a set of candidates of their own. They got up istency with which the opposition carry on their work regardless of those whom they seek to enlist in their course, a man who could not be prevailed on to accopt an bonor within the power of a club to bestow which did not come to him in the regular order of club regulation. He learned on Tuesday that his name appeared on the so-called "members' ticket for the office of vice-president, in place of Charles 8. smith. He immediately requested, in a vote to Mr Oils, that it be withdrawn, as he was not in sympathy with the movement. His wishes remained unheeded. He therefore, yesterday sent out to in dividual members of the Union League Club the following letter:

To the members of the Union League Club: I find my name for vice-president on the so-called members' ticket, in opposition to Charles S. Smith, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and who was nominated for the office on the regular ticket. I have been placed in finmination without my knowledge or consent by the Naminating Committee elected by the club, and bonded by Channey M.
